CREATING YOUR PROFILE

1. Choose Privacy Settings.

2. Add an image of your artwork.

3. Write a Brief Description.

This is optional, but it could be a sort of tagline. Something like “Capturing Color.” “Painting As I See Fit.” “Hands and Heart in Clay.” Or whatever!

4. Write Your Artist’s Statement.

Remember that all of this is changeable at any time. You may want to include information like:

- Your current work (medium, subject intent)
- Your history as an artist
- What you like to do outside of art
- Why you’re joining TVAA.

5. Add Social Links.

This is optional, of course. If you do want to include them, go to your social media page and copy the url (in the address bar of your browser). Then, paste it into the respective social media field.

6. Select Media.

Select each medium that is part of your artistic practice.

7. Click Save & Continue.

The screenshot shows the 'Profile' tab of a website with navigation links: About, Profile, Artwork, History, Volunteer, Card, and Sign Out. The 'Privacy' section has four checkboxes: 'Do not list in directory', 'Do not show street address in profile', 'Do not show phone number', and 'Do not allow messaging'. The 'My Profile' section includes a 'Learn more' link, a prompt to 'Share a picture of yourself to appear on your profile', and a link to 'Click here to delete the current image.' Below this is a placeholder for a profile picture showing an abstract orange artwork. The 'Profile Description' section has a 'Learn more' link and a prompt to 'Provide a short bio or description of your interests'. It features a rich text editor with buttons for 'Format', 'Edit', bold, italic, underline, link, unlink, bulleted list, numbered list, indent, and outdent. The text area contains an 'Artist's Statement' prompt with a list of suggestions: 'information about your current work (medium, subject, intent, etc...)', 'Your history as an artist', 'What you like to do outside of art', and 'What you like about TVAA'. A note states: 'And, remember, you can change this as often as you like, just by signing into your account at the top right of the TVAA website. So, as your work changes, your statement can, too:'. The 'Social Links' section has input fields for Facebook, Instagram, LinkedIn, TikTok, and Vimeo. The 'Media' section has a list of media types with checkboxes: 3-D Work, Art Books/Art Journaling, Assemblage, Ceramics, Collage, Digital Art (checked), Drawing, Fiber Arts, Film/Video, Glass, Graphic Art, Jewelry, Mixed Media, Painting, Pastels, Photography, Printmaking, and Public Art. A green 'Save & Continue' button is at the bottom.
